Noon

My dear Sam.

I had my pen in my hand once this a.m. to write you, when Geo. came in. I now have your letter of 20th re-mailed from The Palace which I am very glad to get and to learn that your cough is so insignificant: also that Jed. R. is pretty well. Give him my kind regards and tell him that the place here seems natural to me, although I miss him and Mr. Williams. W. came to the Kohl House me the day I left - the first that he had crossed the bay. I commenced to get my signatures to his application to the accident Co. with whom he feared some difficulty. He thought that Dr. Worley would allow him to go in a few days. I doubt if he is able to hand alone without danger of injuring, new or the old

I found all well here and included myself with them in the despatch I sent you yesterday. My last from home was of 19th when all seemed to be well according to Mamma's letter but a letter from Anna of two days before said that Mamma had a cold. Judge Gordon did not come to the Convention although Connell felt sure he would be there. I would have been glad to see him and asked C. to tell him so as soon as he came and to bring him to my room. C. was with me up to 2 hours before I left on 21st and had then seen nothing of G. — I gave C. a Dft on Phila. for $2000. and authority to draw on me at sight 1st for $2000. I will write you my reasons for this as soon as I can have time to fully explain them. C. does not want anyone outside of Gordon to know this at this time. I think I got the assignment all right but I had but little time. I am thinking of going east today Monday July 8th which will allow me 2 weeks before I am off by my self to Father Whelan's
